~~integrity, sense of belonging, cohesion and service culture that~~ characterizes us.

ETECSA is a 100% Cuban mixed capital Cuban company founded in 1994, committed to the Revolution and the tasks that support the country's socioeconomic development through an increasing invulnerability of its Telecommunications System. Its organizational structure starts from the Telecommunications Centers as the main cell of business management, which favors personalized and comprehensive attention to its customers and the people. Its workers form teams of professionals who seek creative solutions to problems. The sense of belonging, motivation and a work environment of trust and respect characterize the performance of the company that rests on the values that unite its workers. Its business culture is based on service orientation, rigor and detail; close ties with the people to which it belongs and permanent communication with workers, their clients and society.
