Beautiful morning where the smile and good words captivated those who, with all the love in the world, decided to unite to share the revolutionary spirit, revive the strength of a Country and especially the Imías municipality, accompanied by a radiant sun, they reached the El Palmarito farm in district 16 El Canal.

The Vice President of the Assembly, Yaniet Cobas Moreira, the President of the Popular Council Jesús Lores, Marisol Rodríguez Urgelles and the delegate Yanaikis Arguelles Osorio, fulfilling the Assembly's order, held a welcoming meeting full of optimism and instruction with Yoennis Matos Arguelles, young farmer who does not stop in the face of adversity, leader of a family and united with his wife, they often feel love for the land

In his words, this gallant showed that if man serves the land serves. We are proud to appreciate how this jovi al, defends from oasis, his Country. Every day he travels approximately 8 kilometers to reach it; but he is not intimidated by inclement weather, he knows how to show that: "If it could, if it could and always will be possible", as expressed by Raúl Castro Ruz.

We are a people that do not give up, that we will always be willing from each community to grow and work on the Integrated Community Work project; this is how we make ourselves feel in constituency 16 with the name: My community; a family

The community and my beautiful family will grow like palms, we will be of the unwavering faith of our heroic guerrilla, Ernesto Guevara de la Serna, who with his faultless conduct motivates us to challenge history every day, whatever it may be, from each plot, from each yard, produce food. "Here, nobody gives up", we have the unmistakable strength; those of our youth. We are Cuba, we are continuity.

Without the smile of a woman there is no complete glory of a man.
